

The “Central Virginia Civil War Collectors Association”

Membership Application

The “Central Virginia Civil War Collectors Association” (CVCWCA) is an organization of Civil War collectors, relic hunters, history buff’s, and antique military enthusiasts. The club meets on the first Tuesday of every month (except July) at 7:15 p.m. at the Hunton Civic Center located at the intersection of Mill Road and Old Washington Highway in Glen Allen, Virginia. Activities include presentations related to Civil War artifacts and history, guest speakers, and light refreshments. A “Best Dug Relic of the Month” competition and award is one highlight of every meeting. The CVCWCA sponsors occasional field trips to battlefields and museums, and also sponsors artifact displays at history related events in and around the Richmond, Virginia area. Email: cvcwcamail@cvcwca.com

The “Central Virginia Civil War Collectors Association” annually hosts “The Capital of the Confederacy Civil War Show” which is co-sponsored by the Museum and White House of the Confederacy, Richmond Virginia. This event is considered one of the largest and best all Civil War shows in the East, and is held at Richmond International Raceway, 600 East Laburnum Avenue, in Richmond. Club members receive free entry into this event on Saturday and Sunday. Email: show@cvcwca.com

If you are a responsible Civil War collector, relic hunter or history buff, we invite you to join us. With an annual membership fee of only $20.00, it’s an outstanding value! Fill out this application and mail it, or bring it with you to the next meeting.
