The Central Virginia Civil War Collectors Association

The Central Virginia Civil War Collectors Association (CVCWCA) is an organization of Civil War artifact collectors, relic hunters, history buffs, and antique military experts. The club meets the fourth Tuesday of the month (except July and December) at 7:15 p.m. at American Legion Post 244, located at 2522 Indale Road in old Glen Allen, Virginia. Activities include presentations of artifacts of every description relating to the Civil War, along with historical programs and speakers. There are also "Best-Dug-Relic-of-the-Month" awards and occasional field trips to battlefield locations or museums. (One meeting may be held at the American Civil War Museum!) CVCWCA also sponsors displays at Civil War related events in and around the Richmond, Virginia area.

The Central Virginia Civil War Collectors Association, in conjunction with Mike Kent and Assoc, LLC (www.mkshows.com), annually hosts "The Capital of the Confederacy Civil War Show". This event is the largest and best Civil War related show on the east coast, held every November at the Richmond Raceway Complex, 600 East Laburnum Avenue, Henrico, Virginia.

If you are a responsible Civil War artifact collector, relic hunter, or history buff, we invite you to join us. Membership is the best value in the Civil War field! Fill out your application and mail it today, or you can bring it with you when you come to our next meeting. We hope to see you soon!
