

The Central Virginia Civil War Collectors Association

The Central Virginia Civil War Collectors Association is an organization of Civil War artifact collectors, relic hunters, history buffs, and antique military specialists founded in 1980. The club meets the fourth Tuesday of the month (no meeting in December) at 7:15 p.m. at the American Legion Hall at 2522 Indale Road in old Glen Allen, Virginia (our October meeting is held at the Museum of the Confederacy). Activities include presentations of artifacts of every description relating to the Civil War, along with historical programs and speakers. There are also “Best-Dug-Relic-of-the-Month” awards and occasional field trips to battlefield locations or museums. The Association also sponsors displays at Civil War related events in and around the Richmond, Virginia area.

The Central Virginia Civil War Collectors Association, in conjunction with Mike Kent Shows (www.mkshows.com), annually hosts “The Capital of the Confederacy Civil War Show and Sale”. This event is the largest and best all military and Civil War related show on the east coast and held at the Richmond International Raceway – RIR (old Virginia State Fairgrounds), 600 East Laburnum Avenue, Henrico, Virginia each November.

If you are a responsible Civil War artifact collector, relic hunter, or history buff, we invite you to join us. Membership in the CVCWCA is the best value in the Civil War field! Fill out your application and mail it today. We hope to see you soon!
